Em C G D x2

Em
Never was a navy brat
C
but my father was, yeah
G
Warned (*or TAUGHT) me not to make
D
friends with weather
Em
My love rests in a shipwreck
C
with a compass in his hand
G D
Wait for him, your soldiers, we were running.

C G

Send the wind down

D

I hear his voice now

at the bottom of the blue

C

G

D

I ll get my coat, it ll be the second coming outside when I return with you

G

Em

I m a ship like you,

C

One sail, One sea

D

You and me

Em

G

And I left my soul,

C

next to the shore

D

One sail, One sea

Em C G D

Em

I--I was with my facing sun

C

that makes me look less young

D

Miss you, have Irish grin and

Em

our love is growing upside down

C

G

They say, you ll never make it home

D

but I will wait home, very dark road

C

G

D

Send the wind down I hear him (INSERT UNKNOWN WORD HERE) now

because he is to me my life

G

Em

I m a ship like you,

C

One sail, One sea

D

You and me

Em G
And I left my soul,
 C
next to the shore
D
One sail, One sea

G Em
I m a ship like you,
 C
One sail, One sea
D
You and me

Em G
And I left my soul,
 C
next to the shore
D
One sail, One sea

Em C
think about sinking down
G D
think about all of it Em C
think his face drowning out
G D
I think of it all, think of it all

think of it all

Em C
think about sinking down
G D
think about all of it Em C
think his face drowning out
G D
I think of it all, think of it all

think of it all

G Em
I m a ship like you,
 C
One sail, One sea
D
You and me

Em G
And I left my soul,
 C
next to the shore
D
One sail, One sea

A Fm
I m a ship like you,
 D
One sail, One sea

E
You and me

A Fm D
And I left my soul, next to the shore
E
One sail, One sea
