verse:

Am F
This song s going to you
 E
The one who s so confused
 Am
The one who feels so used
Am F
You don t have to wait
 E
For all this silly fate
 Am
For things you cannot make refrain:

Am F
Hey, what are you going to say?
 E
What are you going to do?
 Am
When it s all said and done

I watched from afar
Wishing on every star
Saving every penny
And I used to feel the same
Like everything s a game
But all I kept doing was losing

So hey, what are you going to say?
What are you going to do?
When it s all said and done

Hey, what are you going to say?

What are you going to do?

When it s all said

When it s all said and done
