Eb5                      B5
I walked the line so carefully
F#5                      C#5
I took my time, I wondered
Eb5                      B5
The here and now, what matters now
F#5                      C#5
No looking back, that s over

Eb5                      B5
I don t know what tomorrow brings
F#5                      C#5                      Eb5
The sun may shine, the world come tumbling down
Eb5                      B5
I don t care what went on before
                 F#5                      G#5                      B5
But I m sure of the here and now

B5                      Eb5
I stood alone, the only one
B5                      F#5                      G#5                      B5
I didn t know I was waiting
B5                      Eb5
For liberty to feel like me
F#5                      C#5                      Eb5
And now I m here I m not willing to change

Eb5                      B5
I don t know what tomorrow brings
F#5                      C#5                      Eb5
The sun may shine, the world come tumbling down
Eb5                      B5
I don t care what went on before
                 F#5                      G#5                      B5
But I m sure of the here and now
G#5                      B5
The here and now
G#5                      B5
The here and now

B5                      A5x4                      B5                      B5                      A5x4                      B5
