MOMMA MOMMA

C9 G6 Momma Momma, I fear you reared me wrong. C9 G6 Momma Momma, I fear you reared me wrong. Cause I pick up my head, can t tell where I belong. C9 G6 Momma Momma, something s hurting me bad. C9 G6 Momma Momma, something s hurting me bad. C9 I have a yearning for something that I never had. C9 G6 D Oh sometimes I feel my life has come and then it s gone. C9 G6 Oh sometimes I feel my life has come and gone. I live in this world but I m only looking on. D C9 G6 I can t understand, it s to far over my head. C9 I can t understand, it s to far over my head. I m living a life but I m really dying instead. C9 G6 D Momma Momma, I fear you reared me wrong. C9 G6 Momma Momma, I fear you reared me wrong. C9 Cause I lift up my head and I can t tell where I belong.

This is close but there s alot more going on in this song beginning with arpeggiating the D and the fingerings around the G, G6 and the C9.

C9

Momma, momma, mom-ma. Something s terribly wrong.
