Verses are clean electric or acoustic.

Chorus and solo are distorted, however it sounds good either way.

Just listen to the song first to get a feel for how to play it properly. :))

It s a simple song, good luck.

Intro

Em, A, Em, A

Em A

A shot in the dark, I woke up to find

Em A

You had broke all the rules, and you changed your mind

Em A

Didnt I love you good, Didnt I love you right

Em A

Then tell me where are you going dressed to kill tonight

F# G# A

This ones gunna hurt like hell

(Chorus)

Em A

Answer my prayers, and answer the phone

Em A

Think twice about it baby, turn around and come on home

F# A Em

Lover stop, lover dont, lover stop, lover lover please.

(Verse 2)

Em A

Its the same ol tune...

Em A

Its the same ol game...

Em A

If there was just one thing

Em A

It would be your love thats...

F#

G#

A

Oh, this ones gunna hurt like hell..

Guitar solo during vox box break

(Play with distortion if possible)

h= hammer on

B = bend

E-----
B-----8h10-8h10-8h10b-----8h10-8h10-8h10b-----9-10
G--7h9-7h9-7h9-----7h9-7h9-7h9-----11-11-11-11-11-----

(Break)

Palm your Em through..

They take it.... like i want to... They make it, they break it...

(Chorus)

Keep playing in same notation as listed above according to section and breaks.
