Merle Haggard

Capo 1

I m gonna break every heart I can
I d be a find- em-and-fool- em man
I m gonna dedicate my whole life to this one plan
Well if I live and I have enough time
I ll get even with the woman kind
I m gonna break every heart I can in everyone I find

I m gonna think of lotta good lies
I m gonna laugh when a woman cries
I m gonna have myself a style to recognize
I m gonna travel all around the world
I d be a friend to the sweetest girl
I m gonna break every heart I can and all my name ain t Merle

Well if I never get around to you
You gonna know about the things I do
They gonna tell about the harm I ve done in the latest news
Cause if I live and have enough time
I ll get evn with the woman kind
I m gonna break every heart I can in everyone I find

I m gonna break every heart I can
I d be a love- em-and-leave- em man
I m gonna dedicate my whole life to this one plan
Well if I live and have enough time
I ll get even with the woman kind
I m gonna break every heart I can in everyone I find
