

Turning Off A Memory

Merle Haggard

Turning Off a Memory

D G D
You can find me in a dim lighted bar-room
 A7
If your cold should ever turn warm
 D G D
But the chances of you ever changing
 A7 D
Are as slim as your two loving arms

Chorus:

D G D
So I m turning off a memory
 E7 A7
As quickly as time will allow
D G D
I m turning off a memory
 A7 D
And the wine seems to help me somehow

So if I m lucky I ll someday forget her
When the wine finally takes full control
It s not much of a future to look to
But I can t stand this pain in my soul

Chorus in D#
