Turning Off A Memory Merle Haggard

Turning Off a Memory

D G I

You can find me in a dim lighted bar-room

Α7

If your cold should ever turn warm

D G I

But the chances of you ever changing

A7 D

Are as slim as your two loving arms

Chorus:

D G D

So I m turning off a memory

E7 A7

As quickly as time will allow

O G D

I m turning off a memory

A7 I

And the wine seems to help me somehow

So if I m lucky I ll someday forget her When the wine finally takes full control It s not much of a future to look to But I can t stand this pain in my soul

Chorus in D#
