F C Dm C7 x2

Say there little boy now don t you be afraid Your mommy doesn t love you and your daddy s just a slave, he smokes up all the sheets and then he buys some more cocaine and you ll find films of him banging broads and it could be your mother all the same

And our lord will always feel the same

Take the barrel, take the breath and the aim

And our lord will always feel the same
Take the mark, take the guess out of the game

Life will always be the same
Take the barrel, take the breath and the aim

And our lord will always feel the same
Take the mark, take the guess out of the game
