[Verse 1]

C

There is a song for my family
Outside the walls of Sunday

G F C

Morning from some within.
This is a song to confess our sins,

G F

Lay it all out, and try to begin again.

C

To hope again.

[Chorus]

G Am7 F

Please forgive our ignorance

G

In looking down on you

Am7 F

Please forgive our selfishness

G

For hiding in our pews while the world bleeds

G

F

While the world needs us to be what we should be

[Verse 2]

C

This is a song for my family who

G F

Just can't believe in the Jesus that you've seen

C

On Sunday morning.

C

This is a song for the cynical saints.

The burned out and hopeless.

G F

The ones that we've cast away.

C

I feel your pain.

[Chorus 2]

G Am7 F G
Please forgive our wastefulness of all that we could be
Am7 F
But donâ€™t forget, thereâ€™s more than this
G
Her beauty still exists
F
His bride is still alive
G
His bride is still alive
F
His bride is still alive
G
His bride is still alive
F G
His bride is still alive

[Ending]

C
This is a song for my family inside
G F
The walls of Sunday morning.
C
Be what you should be.
