

Chicago

Michael Jackson

Dm

I met her on my way to Chicago
Where she was all alone
And so was I

Gm

So I asked her for her name
She smiled and looked at me

Dm

I was surprised to see
That a woman like that
Was really into me

Gm

She said she didn't have no man
Raised her kids the very best she can
(She was loving me)

Dm

She told me she was all alone
Said at home she didn't have no phone
(She was wanting me)

Gm

She said just to give her a page
To spend the night was the goal she played
(She was loving me)

A

She lied to you, lied to me
Thought she was loving me, loving me yeah

Dm

I never would've thought she was living like that
Her words seemed so sincere
When I hold her near

Gm

She would tell me how she feels
If felt so real to me

Dm

This girl, she had to be
An angel sent from Heaven just for me

Gm

She said she didn't have no man
Raised her kids the very best she can
(She was loving me)

Dm

She told me she was all alone
Said at home she didn't have no phone
(She was loving me)

To spend the night was the goal she played
(She was loving me)

She lied to you, lied to me
Thought she was loving me, loving me, yeah

Gm

She tried to live a double life
Loving me while she was still your wife
(She was wanting me)

Dm

She thought that loving me was cool
With you at work and the kids at school
(She was loving me)

Gm

She said that it would never end
Tried to keep me any way she can
(She was wanting me)

She lied to you, lied to me
But she had a family, family

( Dm Gm Dm )

Why? Oh no
Alright! Oh
(I m in love, love)

Dm

I didn t know she was already spoken for
Cause I m not that kind of man

Gm

Swear that I would ve never looked her way
Now I feel so much shame

Dm

And all things have to change
You should know that I m holding her blame!

Gm

She said she didn t have no man
Raised her kids the very best she can
(Holding her to blame)
