pick the intro...

well i remember skies a-blue there s always someone you never knew but life is okay.
i think about those days gone by when there was nothing but you and I Life was okay.

But,I m just a day dreamer, one of those hopeless believers
I m standing on the outside lookin in.
Ohh, tell me your name, baby
And Don t you play games with my heart, and make me feel like I m outside lookin in.

I remember days gone by when the fire lit the sky alive,
Where it was only you and I gunna live forever.
Thoughts of you run through my head and they take me back to that time again but it was never gunna be you and me forever,forever baby

I m a daydreamer one of those hopeless believers.
I m standing on the outside looking in.
Tell me your name, baby
and don t you play games with my heart and make me feel like I m on the outside lookin in
