

Less Than Positive

Michael Nau

Great new song by Michael Nau and simple to play.

[Intro]

E A B A E

[Verse]

Where was your mouth when they told you to talk
Where was your travellin toe when they told you to walk
Where was your heart when they told you love
Where was your big big brain, guess it wasn t working hard enough

[Chorus]

B C#m
Now in the middle of the sun
A E
I m thinking about the universe
A E
I think I know how it works
B
But I m a bit less than positive
B C#m
It s a crack you assume
A E
That I know anything about you
A E
If I knew anything about you
B
I m less than positive

[Verse]

Where was your watch when you needed to watch
Where was the tic and toc and when you asked it to stop
Where was your mouth when you needed a smile
Only got stretches out, and down for such a long time now

[Chorus]

B C#m
In the middle of the sun
A E

I m thinking about the universe

A E

I think I know how it works

B

But I m a bit less than positive

B C#m

It s a crack you assume

A E

That I know anything about you

A E

If I knew anything about you

B

I m less than positive

[Instrumental]

E A B A E x2

[Chorus]

B C#m

In the middle of the sun

A E

I m thinking about the universe

A E

I think I know how it works

B

But I m a bit less than positive

B C#m

It s a crack you assume

A E

That I know anything about you

A E

If I knew anything about you

B

I m less than positive

[Outro]

E A

But if we don t need nobody to cry upon

B A E

But if we don t need nobody to cry upon

E A

But if we don t need nobody to cry upon

B A E

But if we don t need nobody to cry upon

[Instrumental]

E A B A E x2
