TEXAS MORNING

Introduction: Emaj7

Emaj7 F#m
Right in the middle of the ten cent scenery

G#m A
Shuffled and stacked on a postcard rack

Emaj7 F#m
There s a cute little girl with a Shetland pony

G#m A
She smiles at me but I can t smile back

F# B
Cactus Jack drinks coffee black

F# B
Tells me it s my lucky day

A
Five o clock in the Texas Morning

E
And I ve come a long, long way

A
Five o clock in the Texas Morning

E
And I ve come a long, long way

She left me cold on a winter s morning
And cold it s been for a long, long time
She told me Texas was where she s going
And I came looking but she s so hard to find
Cactus Jack drinks coffee black
Tells me it s my lucky day
Five o clock in the Texas Morning
And I ve come a long, long way
Five o clock in the Texas Morning

And I ve come a long, long way

A A/G#

Oh, I don t know just where I ll find her,

F#m G

Maybe the soldier with the suitcase saw her,

D F A E7

She just said she was goin to Texas, for a little while

A A/G#

So I m looking for a girl with light brown hair,

F#m G D

And hazel eyes, and she s not too pretty, but a beautiful smile,

F A E7

She just said, Well I m goin to Texas, for a little while.

Break: F# / B / F# / B

Cook in the back is gettin curious,
He asks the waitress where I m from
She just says Well, I ve never seen him,
He s prob ly just a California bum.
Cactus Jack he says, That s right
As I walk out into the light
Five o clock in the Texas Morning
And I ve got a long, long ride
Five o clock in the Texas Morning
And I ve got a long, long ride

Ema j7 F#m

Outside, the sun is up

G#m

And the wind blows me

Like a dixiecup

Down the highway...
