I love the way

A

that god made your skin

Bm

G

I wouldn t trade it for the world times ten

your absolutely so incredible
you are a masterpiece
that i wanna hold

people stare
its cause they wanna feel they can t believe what got is real

I

guess its true that opposites attract
and i ain t ever gonna give you back

Chorus:

there
ain t no color color to love it s feeling you get when when you ve finally met that someone

it s
time we don t see red black or green
the color of our skin shouldn t mean anything
cause there ain t no color color to love

Verse 2

I know we come from different kinds of worlds but we both share the same kind of love

this love can make a heart skip a beat this love can knock a man on his feet when i look l look right past your skin

I wanna get to know whats deep within
I m so glad you
finally came my way you took my breathe don t have the air to say

Bridge

this is the way
this is the way this is the way love feels

There Ya GO!
Love, Kyle.
