Tuesday Morning by Michelle Branch

Intro: plucking (G D C D)

G D
I remember,
C D
Stormy weather,
G D C D
The way the sky looks when it s cold
G D
And you were with me,
C D
Content with walking,
G D C
So unaware of the world

D Em C
Please don t drive me home tonight,
D Em C
Cause I don t want to feel alone,
D Em C
Please don t drive me home tonight
D Em C
Cause I don t wanna go

G D
Tuesday morning,
Em C
In the dark
G D Em
I was finding out,
C
Who you are?oh

(same as the first stanza)
I took your picture,
While you were sleeping,
Then I pased around the room
If I had known then,
That, these things happen,
Would they have happened with you? Ho ohh

Please don t drive me home tonight,
Cause I don t want to feel alone,

Please don t drive me home tonight
Cause I don t wanna go

Tuesday morning,
In the dark
I was finding out,
Who I was?

Em                    C                    G
And if you turned around to see me,
                         D
And I was gone?oh oo woo
Em                    C                    G
Should have looked outside your window
                         D                    G                    D Em
Cause the sun was coming up?ho oo woo

The sun was coming up?oh ho oo woo, ho

Please don t drive me home tonight,
Cause I don t want to feel alone,

(LUCKING) G D C D
Tuesday morning,
In the dark

G                    D                    Em
we were finding out
                         C
Who we are
G                    D
Tuesday morning,
Em                    C
In the dark?oh, oh
G                    D                    Em
We were finding out,
                         C
Who we are, who we are?ho woo oo oh?ho woo oo oh

Who we are, who we are?ho, woo oo oh

Who we are
