

Ballad Of Patch Eye And Meg
Michelle Shocked

G C G D
Wandering back to when I was a kid and went down to the docks to
G C G D
Watch the old men carving wood and watch the sailors tying knots
G D C G
But the thing that I remember best is gray-haired old Patch Eye
C G D
And the stories that he told about his younger days as we watched those ships roll by.
G

G D
CHORUS: He talked about his missing eye and
C G
He talked about his wooden leg
C G
But he never told me about the old tattoo
D G
On his right arm that said Meg

*This C note can probably be played as a G note as well. Both sound fine to me.
