Christmas Past Mick Flannery

Off the White Lies album great song.

Mick play s this one on the piano hitting single root bass notes which gives it that haunting sound.

Intro: | Dm | F | C | Am | (x4)

Verse:

Dm F C Am Snowmen in the field I see, Dm F С Am Ride the coal bags down the hill with me. Dm \mathbf{F} С Am Hey look you got Rudolph s nose, Dm F C Am Put my hat on you ll get cold.

FCNow let s have a snowball fight,
AmDmI always want you on my side.FCSit down by the fire with me,
AmDmLet s try and climb the Christmas tree.

Verse:

And you and I alone will go, I will walk you all the way back home. And we will talk about the school and things, And I will see you tomorrow please.

Oh yeah I forgot this part, This is where you break my heart. You told me that you loved me then, Did you really mean it friend. Bridge:

Dm Gm And don t go telling me lies love, C Dm Tell me the truth love, tell me the truth love. F Gm Cause that way I won t have to know love, Dm Won t have to see love. С Am Won t have to ask the ghost, Dm Of Christmas past.

Outro: | Dm | F | C | Am | (x4)

Another great song of Mick s, hope you enjoyed it.
