

Up On That Hill
Mick Flannery

Another lovely song from the Red to Blue album.

This song is finger-picked but it s too straight forward to bother tabbing out so you ll have to figure it out yourself it s very easy.

Please rate my tabs! Thanks.

G/F#: 2X0033

Intro:

| D | D | D | G - G/F# - Em | A |

Verse:

D D
The blood that runs your veins,
D
Of all that you are made,
It didn t start with you,
G G/F# Em A
Much as you d like it to.

D D
The path they set you on,
D
Your battles lost and won,
The fakin and the show,
G G/F# Em A
And all you thought you owned,
G G/F# Em A
All them things you think you know.

Chorus:

G D
In the land when all were mournin ,
Bm G

You hear the band and hear them call,

Em G

You can be happy,

Em A

You can be happy, Oh.

Verse:

You stood up on that hill,
You thought you d had your fill,
Didn t want no pedestal,
But mark my words you will.

You heard your story told,
You felt you were getting old,
You thought it time to go,
But you couldn t find no share of gold,
That sent you back on down the road.

Chorus:

In the land when all were mournin ,
You hear the band and hear them call,
You can be happy,
You can be happy, Oh.

Bridge:

Bm

Take your hopes and woes,

D

Take your bruised ego,

Em

Light a fire here,

A

Where the air is clear,

Bm

Or take your sorrow man,

D

To your selfish land,

Em

Run your poor mouth there,

And see if they care.

Chorus:

In the land when all were mournin ,
You hear the band and hear them call,
You can be happy,
You can be happy, Oh.

Link: (play verse progression)

Chorus:

In the land when all were mournin ,
You hear the band and hear them call,
You can be happy,
You can be happy, Oh.

Finish on D.

That s it now enjoy.
