Let s Have a Party

Well at times I feel I need the rain, at times I need the sun
Pleasure is a thread of pain when it is undone
Moments of insanity are never like a chain
I only know that I m not free the nights when I am sane

Chorus:

And now lets have a party for my body full of wine
Stand me in a corner, let me crawl into my mind
I found the only lady I will need when I m awake
She has a heart of crystal, clearly one I will not break
Ooh ooh ooh ooh ooh, oh oh oh oh oh oh

Do not be concerned my love when you see me cry
Laughter does not choose to free the happiness inside
Just as there may seem to be a smile thats out of place
Only means there is a pain that hurts too much to face

Chorus
