

Looks Like Babys Gone
Mickey Newbury

Capo on 2nd fret

C
Tell the robin at my window
Bb
Not to sing to me no songs
F C
Cause it s not the time for singing
F C
It s the time to be alone.

C
Chase that sunshine from my window
Bb
Tell him to pack up his dawn
F C
Just let them sad guitars keep strumming
F G C
Cause it looks like baby s gone.

C F C
I just can t stand to face the mornings
F C
Oh Lord, even when I m stoned
C F C Am
Yes, it looks like I was born
D7 G
Where men were born to be alone.

C
So won t you wake me when it s over
Bb
When it s over I ll go home
F C
But for now please leave, I m tired and sleepin
F G C
Lord, it looks like baby s gone.
