Once they were lovers but now they re not friends

G#m F#

She s found another, he says it s the end

F#m C#

To think they once tore down a wall for a door

G#7 C#

Now they don t speak anymore

So he walks the streets the few night he can stand

Drinkin her memory away when he can

Friend s once would reach out to them from the shore

But now they don t cry anymore

Ebm G#7 C#

How does it all come to happen

Ebm G#7 C#

That s not what lovin is for

Ebm G#7 C#

And if I thought it was I would leave here in the mornin

Ebm C#

I d sooner sleep on the floor

Oh, when will learn really what loving is

It s not what you get in return but what you give

To think they once tore down a wall for a door

Now they don t speak anymore..
