

Lovers

Mickey Newbury

Lovers

Intro: F#m B F#m B E A E A

E E/C# E/C E/B
Once they were lovers but now they re not friends

Bm A
She s found another, he says it s the end

Am E
To think they once tore down a wall for a door

B7 E
Now they don t speak anymore

So he walks the streets the few night he can stand
Drinkin her memory away when he can
Friend s once would reach out to them from the shore
But now they don t cry anymore

F#m B7 E
How does it all come to happen

F#m B7 E
That s not what lovin is for

F#m B7 E
And if I thought it was I would leave here in the mornin

F#m E
I d sooner sleep on the floor

Oh, when will learn really what loving is
It s not what you get in return but what you give
To think they once tore down a wall for a door
Now they don t speak anymore..