(continue as before)

So leave the darkness you carried with you
Those angry skies
All the storms you ve been through
The battle s over, walk away
The simple price you have to pay
Is to believe that someone s helping you through
Oh, it s all you have to do

Pull for the shoreline, reach for a hand
You re nothing at all, oh you sinnerman
No more excuses, won t you please understand?
You re lost without love, oh you sinnerman
Sad, sad sinnerman
