[Verse]
Amadd4   D7 D*   Amadd4 D7 D* D7 D
Did you ever want to be overrun by bandits
Amadd4   D7   D*   Amadd4 D7 D* D7 D
To hand over all of your things and start over new

Gadd9   D   Gadd9   D
  While we were out hunting for food our house was being robbed
Fmaj7   Gadd9
I caught an apple and she caught a fox
   F#m   Gadd9   D

So I caught a rabbit but she caught an ox

```
    F#m         Em7                           D
So upon our return we found everything gone
         F#m           Em7
Which for us was no loss
         D               F#m Em7        D
We started over with a rabbit and an ox
```

[Solo]

[Chorus]
```
        D                       F#m                     Gadd9
So they came down from the north carrying all they owned
                          D         Em7
With a basket full of food and clothes

          D                       F#m                         Gadd9
They were stopped by a weekend raid traveling the woods one day
                      D         Em7
Tried to put up a fight but lost

       D                     F#m                 Gadd9
So we asked for them to stay with us on their way
                      D         Em7 F#m      Em7 F#m Gadd9 D
To have a drink and rest and regain their strength
```

[Interlude]

[Outro]
```
A/D             G/D                     D
  Did you ever want to run around with bandits
   A7sus4              D Dsus4 D
To see many places and hide in ditches
A/D             G/D                     D
  It s not always easy, it s not always easy
       A7sus4                Dsus4               D
When the winter comes and the greenery goes we will make some shelter
       A7sus4                Dsus4               D
When the winter comes and the greenery goes we will make some shelter
