Earth And Sun And Moon Midnight Oil

Here is the correct tableture (or close enough, anyway) INTRO:

```
e |-----
B | -----
G |------
A | 0-0-0------|
E | -----3-3-3-----|
         } X2
B | ----- el
----
В
G
0-0---
----
```

VERSE:

D

In the morning we will wake up and take to the air

Bm

Look back at the planet - I m glued to my chair

D

Southern half is burning as we climb through the sky

Bm

D

Sea birds softly falling, smoke way up high

D

There s the contours of the mountains, the deserts and plains

Bm

And a hurricane is blowing and it turns once again

D

Now there s oil spills in the water where columbus once sailed

Bm

And there s history and mystery and it s rolling away

G D/F# G D/F# Em

I wish I could see this great mystery

Bm G D G D Em

Earth and sun and moon, human tribe, thin blue line

Bm G D G D

Earth and sun and moon, will survive

INTRO

Sediment is flowing from river to sea

Now where are the mighty nations, no lines to be seen

An axe upon the broken ground, the sigh of the trees

And it s floating in the ether, it brings me to my knees

Too messed up to care, anyone got a wing and a prayer

Earth and sun and moon, human tribe, thin blue line

Earth and sun and moon, will survive

Earth and sun moon etc...

p.s. this is what I am calling D/F#: (what s the proper name?!)

D/F# 2
 3
 0
 0

In the blink of an eye, thank you and good night

Jonathan Hart O*

2

p.s. Jim Moginie wrote this one, as well as Warakurna. See any similarities?