

Put Down That Weapon
Midnight Oil

PUT DOWN THAT WEAPON

additions/corrections by Jonathan Hart O*

INTRO: (Let notes ring)

D- |--5-----4--2-----0--|-----7--7--7--|
A- |-----|-----|--2-----0-----5--5--5--|
E- |-----|-----|-----3-----|

Under the

D      Em      C      Am      D
water line
      Em      C      Am      D
No place to retire
      Em      C      Am      D

(Chords continue unabated)
To another time
The eyes of the world now turn

(Same chords , more strumming)
And if we think about it
And if we talk about it
And if the skies go dark with rain
Can you tell me does our freedom remain

CHORUS:

Em      Am      C      D
Put down that weapon or we ll all be gone
Em      Am      C      D
You can t hide nowhere with the torchlight on

      C      Em      C      Em
And it happens to be an emergency
      C      D
Some things aren t meant to be
      C      D      Am      C
Some things don t come for free

above the

...waterline

Point the finger yeah point the bone
 It s the harbour towns
 That the grey metal ships call home
 And if we think about it
 And if we talk about it
 And if the sea goes boiling black
 Can you tell me what you ll do about that

CHORUS

Put down that weapon or we ll all be gone
 I must know something to know it s so wrong
 And if happens to be an emergency
 Some things aren t meant to be
 Some things don t come for free

(Let notes ring)

They keep talking about it

Organ solo over CHORUS CHORDS:

C Em C Em
And it happens to be an emergency
C D
Some things aren't meant to be
Em D/F# Am C
Some things don't come for free

Two Final CHORUSES:

Put down that weapon or we'll all be gone
I must know something to know it's so wrong

C Em C Em
And it happens to be an emergency
C D
Some things aren't meant to be
C D Am C
Some things don't come for free

Put down that weapon or we'll all be gone
You must be crazy if you think you're strong

C Em C Em
And it happens to be an emergency
C D
Some things aren't meant to be
Em D/F# Am G D/F# Em (Fine)
Some things don't come for free
