Em

Em Am F C
So you cut all the tall trees down
G D B7
You poisoned the sky and the sea
Em Am F C
You ve taken what s good from the ground
G D B7
But you ve left precious little for me
Em Am F C
You remember the flood and the fall
G D B7
We remember the light on the hill
Em Am F C
There should be enough for us all
G D B7
But the dollar is driving us still

Am G
River runs red, black rain falls, dust in my hand
F G D
River runs red, black rain falls, on my bleeding land

Em Am F C
So we came and we conquered and found
G D B7

Riches of commons and kings

Em Am F C

Who strangled and wrestled the ground

G D B7

But they never put back anything

Em Am F C

Now I m trapped like a dog in a cage

G D B7

Wherever the truth is pursued

Em Am F C

It must be the curse of the age

G D B7

What s taken is never renewed

Am G

River runs red, black rain falls, dust in my hand

F G D

River runs red, black rain falls, on my bleeding land

Am G

River runs red, black rain falls, dust in my hand
