

You´re the one
Miguel Mateos

Ebm                                  Bbm                                  C#/G          F#   G#                  C#
I can´t be with you tonight distance is my allibi you are the one
Ebm                                  Bbm
tell me that you understand on I wish
                                C#/G                                  F#   G#                  C#
I could hold your hand cause you, you are the one
Ebm                                  Bbm                                  C#/G                                  F#   G#                  C#
Like a lonely satellite you saw me drifting in the sky you are the one
Ebm                                  Bbm                                  C#/G          F#                          G#
C#
Love is what is all about so we live to work it out you babe, you are the one

C#   G#                  Bbm          Fm                  G#          F#                  G#
You are the one you are the queen heal my life treat me right
C#   G#                  Bbm          Fm                  G#          Fm/G#                  Bbm
You are the one you are my queen and nobody else
                                G#                                  F#                                  G# will ever take your place cause you

Ebm                                  Bbm
I´am just a little dream that you dream
                                C#/G                                  F#                                  G#                                  C# on certain nights you, babe, you are the one
Ebm                                  Bbm                                  C#/G
I´ll be there when you call anytime, around the world
                                F#                                  G#                                  C# cause you babe, you babe, you are the one.

C#   G#                  Bbm          Fm                  G#          F#                  G#
(You are the one you are the queen burn me all body and soul
C#   G#                  Bbm          Fm                  G#          Fm/G#                  Bbm          G#                          F#
You are the one you are the queen and nobody else can ever take your place
                                G#                                  C#                                  Ebm          Bbm          C#/G          F#          G#          C# cause you uh uh are the one) x varias veces