Capo 4º!

Am7 D7

He s got looks that books take pages to tell

G Em7

He s got a face to make you fall on your knees

Am7 D

He s got money in the bank to thank and I guess

G Em'

You could think he s livin at ease

A7

Like lovers of the open shore -- What s the matter?

Α7

When you re sitting there with so much more --What s the matter?

WIIC

When you re wondering what the hell to do

G Em7

Are you wishing you were ugly like me?

BRIDGE

A7 D7

Blame it on the girls who know what to do

G Em7

Blame it on the boys who keep hitting/hating? on you

A7 D

Blame it on your mother for the things she said

G Em7

Blame it on your father but you know he s dead

A7 D7

Blame it on the girls

G Em7

Blame it on the boys

A7 D7

Blame it on the girls

G Em7

Blame it on the boys

A7 I

Life could be simple but you never fail

G Em

To complicate it every single time

A7 D7

You could have children and a wife, a perfect little life  ${\bf G}$

But you blow it on a bottle of wine

A7

Like a baby you re a stubborn child -- what s the matter A7

Always looking for an axe to grind -- what s the matter

While you re wondering what the hell to do

G Em7

We were wishing we were lucky like you

A7 D7

Blame it on the girls who know what to do

G Em7

Blame it on the boys who keep hitting/hating? on you

Blame it on your mother for the things she said Blame it on your father but you know he s dead

Blame it on the girls

Blame it on the boys

Blame it on the girls

Blame it on the boys

Life could be simple but you never fail
To complicate it every single time
You could have children and a wife, a perfect little life
But you blow it on a bottle of wine

Blame it on the girls

Blame it on the boys

Blame it on the girls

Blame it on the boys
