

Lonely Alcoholic

MIKA

GREAT song. REALly simple. Beautiful.

Intro: G Em C D7 G Em C D7

G Em C D7
You re a lonely alcoholic, with a tendency to w(h)ine
G Em C D7
Well, you speak it and you drink it, and bore us all the time
G Em C D7
Say you drink out of your sorrow for you ve got no one to love
G Em C D7
But, tell me, who could cuddle up to a lonely alcoholic?

G Em C D7

G Em C D7
You re a stressed out single mother, who has clearly been harassed
G Em C D7
Well, you can t predict the future, for you can t erase the past
G Em C D7
But your baby isn t going anywhere but up
G Em C D7
So join the line and get the dole for the stressed out single mothers

G Em C D7

G Em C D7
I m a mediocre writer, who sings all of the time
G Em C D7
Writing songs about misfortunes and other people s crimes
G Em C D7
Well, they say that I am doing my duty to the world
G Em C D7
Oh, you could say that that is honerous, I m just craving to be heard

G Em C D7
(ooh... don t leave me alone)

G Em C D7
Well, who is there to listen to the problems of our lives?
G Em C D7
We ve got kids who just don t eat enough and men with many wives
G Em C D7
If we re all together screaming, why can t we make a sound?
G Em
Oh, cuz the dirt on which we re stepping
C D7 G Em C D7

Is the one in which we will be found

G Em C

D7

G Em C

D7

Ooh, baby, don't leave me alone

(modulate)

A

F#m

D

E7

Well, who is there to listen to the problems of our lives?

A

F#m

D

E7

We've got kids who just don't eat enough and men with many wives

A

F#m

D

E7

If we're all together screaming, why can't we make a sound?

A

F#m

Oh, cuz the dirt on which we're stepping

D

E7

A

F#m

D

E7

Is the one in which we will be found

A F#m D

E7

A F#m D

E7

A F#m D

E7

A

Ooh, baby, don't leave me alone