Nectarine Part 2 Mike Doughty

Pretty sure this is right. If anyone has suggestions for changes, leave a comment.

D G D

Oh Nectarine, will you love me right again?

Α

Want to blank you, want to ease you from my mind

D G 1

Want to see you, want to hurt you so bad, and

G D A

Want to love you senseless, leave you there in bed

D

Oh Nectarine, come love me right again

(Same chords)

On that night, I saw your picture traced in stars Through the branches, I saw the meteors
Are you weary? Lay you down and get some rest
Lose the dress and wear the boots instead
Oh Nectarine, come love me right again

F#m D

And her hands went numb

F#m D

I tried to hang on

A B F#m D

But sweetness swept through all my senses

F#m D

All those days and nights

F#m D

Sharpened appetites

A B F#m D

And future, past and perfect tenses

(Back to beginning chords)

I m a brass man

You could bust me with one swing

It s not you, friend

It s a stranger in your brain

Rents a room, and

Comes to stay and don t know when

Breaks the dishes and the whole kitchen

Poor Nectarine, come be yourself again

Oh Nectarine

Will you love me right again?

Want to blank you

Want to ease you from my mind

Want to see you

Want to hurt you so bad, and

Want to love you senseless

Leave you there in bed

Oh Nectarine, come love me right again
