

Change #1

Mike McClure

D                    G                    A            D    D    G
Man there s gotta be a better way
                  A            D            D    G
For me to ????????
                  A                                    D
Feel like my wheels are just spinnin
G                    A                    D            D    G
It s all a big waste of time
  A                    D            D    G
Now I know that I don t have a right
                  A                    D            D    G
To ever wanna sing the blues
                  A                    D
Feel like that s all been done
G                    A                    D
There s nothin left to do

Refrão -----

G                    A                                    D
I ain t the kind that wants to go pointin fingers
G                    A                    D
I ain t the one for laying blame
G                    A                    D
I could feel it when I woke up this mornin
D    Bm                    G                    A                    D
Man I think it s way past time for a change
-----

I know people in their life who ve just stopped
Every day it s the same old saying
It would be different it they were satisfied
It s all a big crying shame

(Chorus)

C                    G                    D
Yeah it s gonna take a little while
C                    G                    A
I got nothin left but time

(Chorus)
