F G
We were lying upstairs in our bed
C C/B Am
Mexican moonlight poured into the room
F G
Spilled down the walls and gathered around your head
 C C/B Am
I fell a thousand miles into your soul that evening
F C
Even though it s been years since then
C C/B Am
After all the valleys and the mountain tops
F G
If I had to, I d do it all again

Refrão -----

 F G C C/B Am
Cause every mile, that we walk down brings me closer to the truth
 F G C
And the truth is I ve always loved you and I always will
 C G C C/B Am
And every valley, that we walk down if we hang onto each other
 F G F G
 C
We re gonna make it baby, to the top of the hill, I ve always loved you and I always will

Time can be a healer and a teacher
So many things I ve learned from time
Looking back it s made me a believer
That poetry in motion really doesn t have to rhyme
Like those moments that we have when no one s watching us
Probably lock us up if people knew
And if I m really going out of my mind
Who better to go there with than you
