

Skies Are Turnin Red
Mike McClure

Skies Are Turning Red
Mike McClure/Jamie Kelley
CD: everythingupsidedown
Tabbed By Larry Mofle
rmofle at satx.rr.com

D

Something s coming in the distance baby

G

D

I can hear it comin down the line

D

I know you ve told me a thousand baby

G

D

Come on tell me one more time

D

Tell me everything will be all right

G

D

Tell me I m sick in the head

D

Something s coming in the distance baby

G

D

Cause the skies are turning red

G

D

Yeah, the skies are turning red

Sometimes you got a heart of steel
Sometiems I think I wanna watch you bend
Just to see if you re still standing
When everything comes to an end
I ve seen people turn their back on you
And walked while you stood there and bled(?)
Something s coming in the distance baby
And the skies are turning red
Yeah, the skies are turning red

Chorus:

A

G

D

Something tells me it ain t gonna be like you thought itâ€™d be

A

G

D

You can t think that far ahead, ahead of me

A

G

D

If you want to you can look for me, cause I ll be runnin free

A

G

D

A

Underneath the skies of red, come and run with me

Someday I m gonna get it straight
Or somebody s gonna straighten me out
Either come from the Heavens above
Or somewhere in the shadow of a doubt
Either way something s goin down
The sun s goin over your head
Somethin s comin in the distance baby
Cause the skies are turning red
Yeah, the skies are turning red

Chorus