

Cooler Than Me
Mike Posner

Eb                  D
If I could write you a song,
          Gm
And make you fall in love,
          Eb          D                  Gm
I would already have you up under my arm.
          Eb          D
I used up all my tricks,
          Gm
I hope that you like this.
          Eb          D
But you probably won't,
          Gm
You think you're cooler than me.

Eb          D
You got designer shades,
          Gm
Just to hide your face and
          Eb          D
You wear them around like,
          Gm
You're cooler than me.
          Eb          D
And you never say hey,
          Gm
Or remember my name. and
          Eb          D
It's probably cause,
          Gm
you think you're cooler than me.

(verse 1)

Eb                  D
You got your hot crowd,
Gm
Shoes on your feet,
          Eb          D
And you wear them around,
          Gm
Like they ain't shit.
          Eb          D
But you don't know,

          Gm
The way that you look,
          Eb

When your steps

D Gm

Make. That. Much. Noise? Shh

(pre-chorus)

Eb D

See I got you,

Gm

All figured out,

Eb D Gm

You need everyone s eyes just to feel seen.

Eb D

Girl, you re so vain,

Gm Eb D

You probably think that this song is about you.

Don t you? Don t you?

(chorus)
