

The Genius And The Tramp
Milburn

E C#m
There are some things that you never want to see
C#m
Situations that you struggle to believe
A Am E
Now you re older and I am older too
E C#m
There are some things that you said you d never do
C#m
But we both know that s not entirely true
A Am E
You did them, didn t we do them together?

A
So where did you go?
G#
What do you know?
C#m E
You can t hide your head in the clouds forever
A G#
What did we say about drifting away?
C#m G#
We said it won t happen to us, now we re too clever
C#m B A
Well I guess we weren t that clever

E C#m
Piece is moving, made the picture fall apart
C#m
So you take them and go back to the start
A Am E
Well it leaves you, wondering what you began with
C#m
There were chances that you never seemed to take
C#m
Opportunities were handed on a plate
A Am E
So you sit there, waiting for fortune to find you

A
So where did you go?
G#
What do you know?
C#m E
You can t hide your head in the clouds forever
A G#
What did we say about drifting away?

C#m

G#

We said it won't happen to us, cause we're too clever

C#m

B

A

Well I guess we weren't that clever after all

[Solo]

C#m G#m C#m G#m A B x2

E

A

So where did you go?

G#

What do you know?

C#m

E

You can't hide your head in the clouds forever

A

G#

What did we say about drifting away?

C#m

G#

We said it won't happen to us, cause we're too clever

C#m

B

A

Well I guess we were not that clever after all

E E F#m G#m F#m (till the end)

You can't hide your head in the clouds forever

You can't hide your head in the clouds forever

It won't happen to us cause we're too clever

You can't put your head in your hands forever