

Always An Anchor

Miles Benjamin Anthony Robinson

MBAR - Always an anchor

Intro

G Em 5x

C

G

I lost a love that loved me completely ranks of regret they batter and beat me

Em

Im never going back again
without a lot more medicine a few less friends

G

Somewhere back in my old hometown theres an alright kid dragging an anchor around

Em

It looks a lot like a frown
goddamn its hard to turn an anchor upside down

C

G

Em

When smile ain't a smile, just some teeth messing with your mind...

Am

C

Well you're right to fear the fear you'll find

G Em

C

G

Wake up in the morning and I float downtown
I watch the fish fill the filthy fucking city that drowned

Em

Above that big hole in the ground where my fine friend fear had first been found.

G

I remember seventeen

Em C

I remember being honest, horny, healthy and clean

G

Em

I remember believing briefly that Id been born to be the one

Am

C

It seems something worse than stupid now its done

Em Am C

A lot of people I know are walking round

G Em

wondering is it ever gonna be their day?

Am G C

From what I've seen so far man... Its no way

C

Not today

Not today

Not today

G Em C

Babe Iâ€™m sorry that it turned out bad honey with all we had

Babe, Iâ€™m sorry that it turned out... bad.
