                  D          A          Em    G
You get the limo out front
                  D                  A          Em    G
Hottest styles, every shoe, every color
                  D                  A          Em    G
Yeah, when you re famous it can be kinda fun
                  D                  A          Em    G
It s really you but no one ever discovers

Em  C
In some ways you re just like all your friends
Em  G
But on stage you re a star

REFRÃO:

                  D    A    Em          G
You get the best of both worlds
                  D          A
Chill it out, take it slow
                  Em          G
Then you rock out the show
                  D    A    Em          G
You get the best of both worlds
Em  G                          D    A    Em
Mix it all together and you know that it s the best of both worlds

G                                  D          A    Em    G
The best of both worlds

                  D          A          Em    G
You go to movie premieres (is that Orlando Bloom?)
                  D                  A    Em    G
Hear your songs on the radio
                  D                  A          Em    G
Livin two lives is a little weird (yeah)
                  D                  A    Em    G
But school s cool cuz nobody knows

Em  C
You get to be a small town girl
                  Em  G
But big time when you play your guitar

Em C
Pictures and autographs

Em C
You get your face in all the magazines

Em A
The best part is that you get to be who ever you wanna be

D A Em G
Yeah the best of both

D A Em G
You get the best of both

D A Em G
Come on best of both

Em C
Who would ve thought that a girl like me
Em G
Would double as a superstar
