

She was a stunner riding high and I got low rank and others couldn't see what she was worth on the party behind the sunrise in the meadow month of july

I was a runner running high without a stop sticking to the imaginable spire-spot
month of july

Come, come, we go up to church and ring the bell of happiness we go so far and we end up in the richest poverty

--> 2x

go up to church and ring the bell of happiness and we end up in richest poverty
