intro

You don t know where you are any more,

Just know where you've been.
It doesn't matter how it all was before.
Let the present begin.
Big decision for a man in a daze,
to leave the haze, yeah...

What's done is done;
you need to set your ways.
And that is you,
you in your future days.
Mistakes and slips,
are made by everyone.
So please accept what's done is done,

Am                      G
Movement is a sign of life; keep moving forward, life
Am                      G
There is no going back from here in spite of all your fight.
Em                      C
There's no point in blaming yourself for the wrongs you've done.
         Bm                      F#m
The game that is really numb, no need to be on the run.

What's done is done;
you need to set your ways.
And that is you,
you in your future days.
Mistakes and slips,
are made by everyone.
So please accept what's done is done,
What's done is done.
What's done is done.

So, please accept
What's done is done,
What's done is done,
What's done is done

So, please accept
What's done is done,
What's done is done.
