

The Mayfly
Millencolin

Artist: Millencolin
Album: Pennybridge Pioners
Song: The Mayfly

Comment: I made this tab just listening the song and using simple chords to make kinda like an acoustic version. Probably not 100% correct but I think it sounds pretty nice. If u think this version needs correction please write me at weirdxkid@gmail.com and I will gladly change it :)

Chords Used.

E	----	B	----	A	----	A2	----
	----		-4--		-2--		----
	-1--		-4--		-2--		-2--
	-2--		-4--		-2--		-2--
	-2--		-2--		----		----
	----		----		----		----

Intro| You need to listen the song to get the right rhytm

E - B - A - A2

Verse| The chords and rhytm are the same as the Intro.

E B [A / A2]
Everything s complete, the newly wed syndrome
The mayfly hit the street, everybody in plus
Burnt out as can be, watching you go home
It s crystal clear to me, you don t longer need us
It s OK, we ll come around

Chorus

E B A
Now there s nothing left for us, we re packing up, saying goodbye
To a place no one can trust, to a scene based on a lie
I truly hope we won t retreat, the same mistake we won t repeat
The bond was stable as a shed, love is mutual, love is dead

2nd Verse

E B [A / A2]
Everything went great, with lots of beginners luck

The mayfly on a skate, timing in perfection
Bored out as can be, monkey s getting stuck
The four of us agreed, we need to follow action
Where ever that might be...

Repeat the Chorus

Interlude| The 3rd verse sounds as interlude to opening the guitar solo

B A
Here I Go, I m tired about what all you say
- Just one show, you owe it to the kids, so play!
That s all bull
The main thing s that we re having fun!
Said and done, said and done
I don t owe a shit to anyone.

Guitar Solo| Since is an acoustic version I don t think it s really necessary to put it here cause you can just follow the bass line that is E B A A2, But if you want the solo there s a tab in this same site :)

Repeat the Chorus.

That s it :)
