Only resting on me

Truth, so true

Slight tendency

For two by two

To be as they meet

You will bury that hatchet with an olive branch

Tied to your knee

Only when you re sleeping

Son, my son

The weight is unique

One, by one

The words are complete

For keeps

Just remember the weight of your world s
Only resting on me

Only
Only when you re sleeping
Only
Only when you re sleeping

I would never run you away

I will never run
I would never run you away
Son my only son
I will never run you away

I will never run
You
