Em G D A

it s been so long since I ve been by myself
And I need this more than you will ever know
People like you and me never feel the breeze
People like you and me will never know the easy way

D A Hm G

I scream into the wind and then laugh
As the words slap me in face
I would gladly trade a lifetime of convenience
For an honest day or two

It s just not the same when you re staring
Into a perfect golden sunset
And thinking about how you sold your soul
To send the rain away

[Verse chords]

It s been so long since I ve stood on my two feet
I d really rather lay here and pretend
But people like you and me never get that peace
It comes from denying that everything is so screwed up
It s so screwed up

I stand on a building and throw up my arms to the sky
I swallow my pride and admit
That it s not always best to understand the reasons why

It s just not the same when you wake up in the morning
With a smile on your face
When you know you lied yourself to sleep to make it better make it better
