Hurts To Think

Written by Miranda Lambert, Natalie Hemby & Jessica Bendinger

Recorded by Miranda Lambert

Key of G -- No Capo

Intro.: G Bb F C

G Bb F
C

Tongue is sharp, got an ax to grind, girls go wrong, men go right after them

G Bb F
C

I don't win and it's a compromise, you'll be the loser that pays the dividend

D C
Far from you you'll find me, such an easy target and a tragedy

D C
G

You're just a shiver looking for a spine, you can (C) have your way, but you can't have mine

Inst.: --- (Bb)|(F)(C)

G Bb F
C

If I had one wish you'd go away, I haven't slept yet, but I'm on the brink of it

G Bb F
C

I'm not as dumb as the look on your face, you'll never be half the man your mama is

D C
Overloaded by the way you talk, a hairpin trigger that I can't stop

D C
G

Empty words taking up my time, and you can have your way, but you can't have mine

G Bb
Cause every shot baby it feels like a resurrection

F G
I'm looking for affection at the bottom of a bottle again

Bb

You show up and it starts another chain reaction

F

Oh, but I can't tell if it's you or the drink, it's too hard to know, cause it hurts to think
