Polly wolly doodle- Shirley Temple Version. Key of G.
Originally played on banjo, but sounds great on guitar! Easy to play too!*

[Verse 1]

G

Oh! I eat watermelon and I have for years,

sing Polly-wolly-doodle all the day;

I like watermelon but it wets my ears,

sing Polly-wolly-doodle all the day.

[Verse 2]

G

Maybe grass tastes good to a moo cow s mouth,

sing Polly-wolly-doodle all the day;

But I like chicken cause I m from the south,

sing Polly-wolly-doodle all the day.

[Chorus]

G G

Fare-thee well,

G G

Fare-thee well,

D

Mister gloom be on your way,

If you think you re gonna worry,

you can stop it in a huury,

G

sing Polly-wolly-doodle all the day!

[Verse 3] (Same chords as verse 1+2)

A woodpecker pecks till he gets his fill,

sing Polly-wolly-doodle all the day;

But the woodpecker pays cause it s on his bill,

sing Polly-wolly-doodle all the day.

[Verse 4] (Same chords as verse 1+2)

Oh! I feed my pigs with molasses yam,

sing Polly-wolly-doodle all the day;

And they should be sweeter than they really am,

sing Polly-wolly-doodle all the day.

[Chorus]

[Verse 5] (Same chords as verse 1+2)

Oh! I hate to hear a choc late drop,
sing Polly-wolly-doodle all the day;
But I like to hear a lollypop,
sing Polly-wolly-doodle all the day.

[Verse 6] (Same chords as verse 1+2)

Ev rything went wrong but it turned out right,
sing Polly-wolly-doodle all the day;
The skies were gray but the future s bright,
sing Polly-wolly-doodle all the day.

[Chorus]
