Words that kill
Em      Cm      Gm      C#

[Verse]

Em                                  Bm                                  Dm                                  Am
Pride feeds their blackened hearts, and thirst, must be quenched through hypocrisy
Cm                                  Gm                                  C#
Cleansing flames, is the only way to remain, renounce what made you
Fm                                  Cm
Words that kill, would you speak them to me
Fm                                  Cm
With your presence still, it makes me believe
Fm                                  Cm
That sins never die, can t wash this blood off our hands
Fm                                  Cm
Let the world fear us all, it s just means to an end,
Bbm                                  Cm
As salvation lies, in the father s sins
C#                                  Eb
Beyond the truth, let me suffer now
Bbm      Cm      C#      Eb
Bbm                                  Cm                                  C#                                  Eb                                  Fm
In my heart i just know that there s no way to light up the dark, in his eyes

[Outro]

Fm      C#      Bbm      Cm                    (x2)
