Misc Computer Games

[Intro]

N.C.

When I was just a lad you know,

N.C.

I met a gal from old Bourdeaux,

N.C.

She had blonde hair and blue eyes too;

D7

She let me ride on the ring-dang-do.

[Chorus]

D

The ring-dang-do, now what is that?

A7

It s soft and round like a pussycat,

G7

Got a hole in the middle and it s split in two;

D7

And that s what you call the ring-dang-do.

[Verse]

D

She took me down into her cellar;

A7

Said that I was a mighty fine fella;

G7

Fed me wine and whiskey too;

D7

Let me ride on the ring-dang-do.

[Chorus]

D

The ring-dang-do, now what is that?

A7

It s soft and round like a pussycat,

G7

Got a hole in the middle and it s split in two;

D7

And that s what you call the ring-dang-do.

[verse]

D

Her father come in and angrily said;

A7

Now you have lost your maiden head;

G7

Pack your bags and your coat tags too;

D7

Make your living off a ring-dang-do.

[Chorus]

D

The ring-dang-do, now what is that?

A7

It s soft and round like a pussycat,

G7

Got a hole in the middle and it s split in two;

D7

And that s what you call the ring-dang-do.

[verse]

D

She went off to be a whore;

A7

Hung this sing upon her door;

G7

A dollar each and three for two;

D7

To take a crack at my ring-dang-do,

[Chorus]

D

The ring-dang-do, now what is that?

A7

It s soft and round like a pussycat,

G7

Got a hole in the middle and it s split in two;

D7

And that s what you call the ring-dang-do.
