

Anna Blanc - Weak And Broken Vows
Misc Praise Songs

[Verse]

C                    F                    C/E                    Am                    G/B
I ll never leave You, I ll never turn my heart awau
C                    F                    Gsus
You are my only love
C                    F                    C/E                    Am                    G/B
And in the darkness, where fear and doubt seem truer
C                    F                    Gsus
I ll never turn away

[Chorus]

Am                    F                    C/E                    G
Help me, God, to love You
                  Am                    F                    C/E                    G
Help me, God, to love You
                  Am                    F                    C/E                    G                    F
Take these weak and broken vows and make me Yours

[Verse]

C                                    F                    C/E                                    Am                    G/B
Though time may threaten to cool the flame of passion
C                                    F                    Gsus
Still I will reach for You
C                                    F                    C/E                                    Am                    G/B
And in the valley, until the shadows flee away
C                                    F                    Gsus
I set my heart on You

[Bridge]

C/E                    F                                    Gsus
And even when my heart condemns me
C/E                                    F                                    Gsus
Your love is greater than my weakness
C/E                    F                                    Gsus
My confidence is in Your mercy
C/E                                    F                                    Gsus
You are the One able to keep me
