...OLD JOE S PLACE... by The Folksmen
-----.....

*from A Mighty Wind Original Soundtrack (2003)*

Intro:

G,
C F, C G

Verse 1:

C F C F
When-ever I m out a wandering, chasing a rainbow dream.
C C/B Am Am/G D7 G
I often stop and think a-bout, a place I ve never seen.

Bridge 1:

Am Em Am G G7
Where friendly folks can gather, and raise the rafters high.
C C/B Am Am/G F G C
With songs and tales of yester year, un-til they say good-bye.

Chorus 1:

(n.c.)

Well...

F C F C
There s a puppy in the parlour, and a skillet on the stove,
F C G C
And a smelly old blanket, that a Navajo wove.
F C F C
There s a chicken on the table, but you got to say grace.
F C G C F, C G
There s always something cooking at Old Joe s Place.

Verse 2:

C F C F
Now folks come by round evening time, soon as the sun goes down.
C C/B Am Am/G D7 G
Some drop in from right next door, and some from out of town. Pick it!

Banjo Solo:

Am Em, Am G G7, C C/B Am Am/G, F G C

Chorus 2:

(n.c.)

Well...

There s a puppy in the parlour, and a skillet on the stove,

And a smelly old blanket, that a Navajo wove.

There s popcorn in the popper, and a porker in the pot.

There s pie in the pantry, and the coffee s always hot.

There s a chicken on the table, but you got to say grace.

There s always something cooking at Old Joe s Place.

Verse 3:

Now they don t allow no frowns inside; leave them by the door.

There s apple brandy by the keg, and sawdust on the floor.

Bridge 3:

So if you ve got a hankerin , I ll tell you where to go.

Just look for the busted neon sign, that flashes... Ea A Oe s.

Chorus 3:

(n.c.)

Well...

There s a puppy in the parlour, and a skillet on the stove,

And a smelly old blanket, that a Navajo wove.

There s popcorn in the popper, and a porker in the pot.

There s pie in the pantry, and the coffee s always hot.

There s sausage in the morning, and a party every night,

There s a nurse on duty, if you don t feel right.

There s a chicken on the table, but you got to say grace.

(n.c.)

There s... always something cooking at Old... Joe s... Place.

Outro:

C F, C F, G C
